2022 - 2023

THE PROCESS

I'm super excited at the idea of creating some stunning florals for you! They play such a big part in the overall design of any event space and they are a huge love of mine. So you can rest assured I will obsess as much as you do over the perfect colour palette and flower selection to match the look and feel of your wedding or special event.

All of my floral clients are treated to a collaborative creative process. We start by gathering all of your flower inspo along with some visuals of your key elements like dress colour, suit colour, linens and stationery. This helps me to find the perfect textures and colour scheme in your flowers to beautifully compliment the rest of your visual elements. From there I create a divine proposal for you to keep, including a colour palette, flower recipe, and description of each floral piece, along with an itemised quote.

We jump on a zoom call and go over this proposal together to identify which elements make your heart sing and which ones aren't a priority in your budget. Once we have an agreed set of elements I'm ready to get those fresh flowers in my hot little hands and start creating your floral dreams!

INVESTMENT

A 30% booking fee is required to secure your event date with the remainder of fees due four weeks out from your event. I have a minimum floral spend of $3000 as I only take on one floral client per weekend to ensure that your blooms get my full creative attention and energy.

Delivery fees are calculated based on on-site setup requirements and location and will be included in the itemised quote that forms part of your floral proposal.

On the following pages I have listed my base pricing for the most commonly requested floral elements. Please be aware that some flowers such as orchids, South American roses and dried/preserved elements will incur additional fees.

Bridal Bouquets

From bright and bold to classic neutrals, no matter what vibe you are going for your bridal bouquet will be an absolute standout. The freshest and most perfect blooms are allocated to your bridal bouquet so that it truly shines on your wedding day.

Prices start from:

$250

That extra touch....

All of my brides are treated to a trailing silk ribbon on their bouquet if desired.

Bridesmaid Bouquets

The perfect accompaniment to your bridal bouquet, your maids' bouquets are smaller in size but just as much a show stopper in their own right.

Prices start from:

$150

LET'S GET STARTED!

Jot down a list of elements that you need and flick me an email with all of your requirements! Make sure you include:

- your wedding or event date,
- how many of each element you need,
- a delivery address to help me calculate travel and install fees, and
- some of your floral inspo.

We will then jump on a phone call to get the conversation started.
